Dedicated to

For her sympathy and understanding, her guidance and suggestions, and her patient efforts to help on any problem, this year's BOBASHELA is dedicated to Miss Carolyn Bufkin, assistant to the Registrar. School visitors are immediately impressed by her friendly spirit of cooperation. Many of those who plan to attend Millsaps find in Miss Bufkin a genuine person who radiates kindness and encouragement. If first impressions count most, then we pay tribute to her as the one who creates so many lasting favorable opinions of Millsaps. Her counsel isn't limited to routines of registering, schedules, and instructors, but reaches out to embrace any matter of personal advice or extra-curricular information necessary to faculty and students. Her dependability and friendship are deep and enduring.

The P R E S I D E N T

Dr. Marion L. Smith, "Smiley" to everyone, is the perfect example of Millsaps spirit. Never too busy to have a friendly word with every student, his geniality and kindness have made a lasting impression on our hearts. His devotion to Millsaps is an inspiration for the entire student body.

DEAN RIECKEN

The DEANS

DEAN WILLIAM R. RIECKEN, Ph.D.
Dean of Men

Dean of men, teacher of biology, member of Phi Beta Kappa—these are just a few of the things which make Dr. Riecken a very versatile person. An outstanding scholar, he is unsurpassed in the fair execution of his duties. Instinctively Millsaps students respect and like Dean Riecken.

DEAN MARY H. B. STONE, M.A.
Dean of Women

Any girl at Millsaps will be able to tell you what a truly fine person our Dean of Women is. Through her sincerity, geniality, and ability to understand everyone's problems, she has won the respect and cooperation of all students.

The 1947

The jobs involved in producing an annual are varied and many, from taking pictures to selling ads. This year it has been the job of the 1947 staff to work together to give you a book that is worthwhile to students and to the college and to preserve for each of you a pictorial record of this milestone of college history.

I hope the book itself and the material herein are worth the long wait for them. If apologies are in order, I do apologize for myself and the circumstances which made the '47 Bobashela come out in '48, but regardless of the publication date, I hope you do enjoy this annual.

Under the leadership of two different staff heads, the 1946-47 Purple and White has had its trials and tribulations, its ups and downs, and its praises and criticisms. On the whole, the staff has tried to produce a paper that will provide up-to-the-minute information, humor, and some serious thoughts on important issues. To please all the people all of the time is impossible, but it is with a sincere effort that the staff has tried to please the student body.

MR. ALVIN J. KING

The MILL

"Pop" King has been a leading figure in Mississippi music circles for a number of years, and his Millsaps Singers have been annual proof of his work. He believes that "practice makes perfect" as any of the Singers will affirm, and the results show that his is the best way.

S A P S S I N G E R S

As always the Millsaps Singers are still bringing fame to Millsaps by making their fabulous tours to Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi. Another leaf in their crown of laurels was their guest appearance with the Jackson Symphony. Mr. King also presented the Singers in their annual Christmas Candlelight Service and a spring concert.

The Beta Sigs started the season by searching for new chapter rooms. Cobb and Robinson spouted diamonds, and Anne Craig marched to the altar. Ely and Gadbold held memberships in almost every organization on the campus, and Harmer and Armstrong won badminton honors. Armstrong also capped the ping pong tournament. Liming was chosen secretary of the Fraschs, and Robinson and Berryhill were named favorites. Dot Myers was suddenly discovered by the Millsaps eds, and Jerry Maya continued to be a personality.

The girls of Chi Delta walked off with top scholastic honors for the first semester. Welsh and Porter were selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Cunningham, Thrawer, and Lampton marched to Lohengrin, while Graves got a diamond. Hendricks, Howell, Adcock, Welsh, and Roberts sported frat pins. Several sisters were tapped for Sigma Lambda, KDE and other honoraries. Porter edited the Baboshela, Rush and Dassetts rated as the top two beauties, and Welsh was elected "Miss Millsaps."

These girls started the year off by taking tap honors in the number of girls pledged. Barnes headed Women's Panhellenic and Kappa Delta Epsilon, and Minyard led the Majorettes. Barnes got an ornament for the "third finger, left hand," and Walker got a shield and diamond. Dubard was chosen a beauty, and Patterson, Watkins, Ammans, and Miller were selected as favorites. Many KD's made the honoraries, and they had a good representation going on tour this year. Ridgway was the capable business manager of the Bobashela.

The Phi Mu's wasted no time in making this year a big one. Crisler was elected Senior Class secretary and was tapped into Sigma Lambda. Robertson and Hamilton were beauties. Vandiver was feature editor of the Purple and White and a member of Chi Delta. Carr and Goodman were also Sigma Lambda's, and White got pinned. The girls really kept up their tradition of having a large representation in honoraries.

Another good year for the Vikings started off when Myra became Sills instead of Nichols. Brewer headed the Christian Council, and Pittman, Frances that is, led the Majorettes. Langdon was tapped for honoraries, as was Brewer. Getting diplomas at mid-term were Cadenhead and Rosie Nichols. Joint meetings and parties with the Barbarians have been outstanding events of the year. These are the girls to watch when intramurals time rolls around.

These members of the oldest frat on the campus showed up well this year by first copping the top campus honor—Havias was elected prexy of the student body. Bishop, Longmire, and Jordan were top campus personalities, and a lot of pinning went on here too—Riley, Holmes, and Harlan ploded the shield on the girls of their hearts, and Currie took the fatal step, motrimony with a Belhaven damsel. Dever ably served as assistant editor of the Bobashela.

The Sigs again proved their merit on our campus and have upheld their famed tradition of being swell party-throwers—witness their phenomenally successful Barn Dance. Shackelford got hitched to start the year off right, and not to be outdone, Sumerlin followed suit. O'Brien and Fleming captured class officers, and Boyd was head cheerleader. THE COACHES

This was Coach Bartling's first football season with the Millsaps Majors. Coach Bartling came to Millsaps from Vanderbilt University where he was head coach for three years. At Millsaps, Bartling made a fine showing with his Majors, leading them to 5 wins and 1 loss.

Coach Bartling was ably assisted in his athletic program by Jack Winborn.

CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

CHRISTIAN LEADERS ORGANIZED FOR SERVICE

OFFICERS

BILLIE BREWER	President
DAVID HARRIS	Vice-President
REBECCA ELY	Secretary
DR. RIECKEN	Treasurer

With semi-annual achievements through Religious Emphasis Weeks, the Christian Council sheds its radiance across the campus, guiding the spiritual life of the student. Their efforts unite college groups with local churches, and their influence extends in many directions in improving student life and thought.
